

ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO
THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

In reply refer to LR

September 30, 1950

My dear Mr. Houston:

The Department is pleased to extend the privilege of the use of its Law Library to you and the following officers of the Central Intelligence Agency as requested in your letter of September 26, 1950:

Walter L. Pforzheimer

STAT

The Law Library is located in Room 4252 New State Building. Unfortunately seating facilities are limited and it should be pointed out that no more than two readers from your office can be accommodated at any one time. The librarian in charge is Miss Rosine Pilliod, who is prepared to give such assistance as you may require in your use of the law collections.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Ottemiller
Acting Chief

Division of Library and Reference Services

Mr. Lawrence R. Houston,
General Counsel,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington 25, D. C.
